Your Student's Classes at a Glance:

Reading/Language Arts: There are no spelling words this week and there is no homework packet. In reading this week we will be completing the end of the year test. Students will continue to work on their animal reports as well. On Wednesday, the students will have the opportunity to share their reports to other classes. Please watch for these reports to come home to see all the hard work your child has done the last couple of weeks!

Math: We will be completing the end of the year unit test. We will continue to work with graphing and probability as well.

Science: We will be studying the lifecycle of the butterfly.

Social Studies: Students will be visiting Sauder Village on Tuesday for our field trip.

Music: What an awesome year - enjoy your summer vacation.

Spanish: Wow! School is coming to an end and this is the last newsletter. Students are finishing up their last projects, which is a journal writing book and we plan on just having fun! Have a great summer!
