Your Student's Classes at a Glance:

Reading/Language Arts: Students are going to be completing a memory book this week. Their books will consist of favorites throughout the year and illustrations to match.

Math: We are going to continue to build on our subtraction and addition skills this week. Over the summer continue to practice basic math facts with your child. Addition and subtraction are a large part of first grade math.

Science: This week we are going to continue to talk about habitats. Students are going to be introduced to the rainforest and what animals live there.

Social Studies: We will be reviewing topics that we have learned throughout the year. We will go over U.S. symbols and authority figures.

Music: What an awesome year - Enjoy your summer vacation.

Spanish: Wow! This is our last week of school and the last of newsletters. Students will be finishing up any work and projects that they have not completed. Have a great summer!

Hope everyone has a terrific summer. See you back in the fall!!
